

SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

You will miss a good show unless you see "The Patsy," the comedy being presented by the students of the Truckee high school at Masonic hall Friday evening, April 23. The members of the cast have worked diligently to perfect their parts and the youngsters are prepared to provide you with an evening of fun.

When the Knights of Pythias meet tomorrow night, it will mark one of the saddest occasions in the organization's history. A farewell reception has been arranged for the departing Hqbart Mills members who have formed a large portion of the membership. Their absence will be deeply regretted by their fellow knights.

Anxious to serve its patrons of the Lake Tahoe district at the earliest possible date, the Southern Pacific company today is plowing out its tracks and getting ready for the forthcoming busy season. The general agent, Joe Bick, will again be in charge of the Tahoe agency.

We were mildly admonished the other day for "tipping off" night fishermen on the Truckee river. Why, we were asked, didn't you keep still and let us catch some of them. We still contend that it's better to prevent a misdemeanor than it is to punish a culprit.

Truckee, this week, is anxiously awaiting word from the bedside of one of its most ardent supporters, Tim O'Hanrahan, who recently underwent a major operation. We all join in hoping that his recovery is speedy.

Tahoe's Ski clubsters wound up the season in fine style Sunday and like every other meet of the year brought the bulk of the laurels back to Tahoe when they competed at Placerville. The boys have earned their titles as champions and we will be watching their progress in the coming season.

Sarge Clark, Truckee checking station clerk and a former newspaper scribe of some distinction, is contributing a column to the Sun. You will find it on page five and we hope you like it.

NIECE OF TRUCKEE WOMEN MAKES HIT WITH BAY RECITAL

Mrs. Mary Roquette attended the piano recital given by her 13-year-old niece, Mary Barbis, in the Chapel of the Chimes at Oakland last week.

According to accounts of the performance appearing in the bay city papers, musicians and critics are watching her with interest and consider the girl a brilliant pianist with not only technical skill, but a remarkable mature intonation of both classical and modern works.

The program included Brahms' Hungarian Dance No. 5, Mendelssohn's Rondo Capriccioso, Liszt's arrangement of Wagner's Evening Star and Debussy's Golliwogg's Cake Walk.

Mrs. Elden Tonini is another aunt of Miss Barbis who has visited here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Barbis of Oakland.

LAKE LEVEL WILL BE ABOVE NORMAL FOR THIS SEASON

Basing his calculations on the figures received to date, H. P. Boardman of the Nevada snow survey at Reno, estimates that Lake Tahoe will rise five inches higher than the maximum elevation of last year, or 6,226.3 feet above the level of the sea.

Boardman also anticipates a rise this spring of slightly less than normal or 1.6 feet. The normal for this period is 20 inches.

Truckee river runoff during April to July will be 290,000 acre feet, he estimated. The normal for the period is 325,000 acre feet.

The water content of the snow measurements at Summit and on the Little Truckee are under normal for April 1, according to the report.

TONY PACES ARE PARENTS OF GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Pace are receiving the felicitations of their friends upon the arrival of their first child on Saturday, April 10 at Auburn. The baby, a girl, has been named Sheran and weighed six and a half pounds. All members of the family are doing nicely.

STOLEN MACHINE RECOVERED BY LOCAL OFFICERS

Wyoming Boy Admits Theft Of Automobile To Visit Mother

IN PREVIOUS TROUBLE

Youth to be Returned Home To Face Charge of Grand Theft

"Yes, I stole the car because I wanted to visit my mother in North Bloomfield, California."

Thus did Arnold L. Hamilton, 20, a cook of Lusk, Wyoming, tearfully explain to Truckee checking station officers Sunday afternoon why he was driving the expensive Chrysler sedan of Edward Arnold, Lusk cattle man.

Following his statement, the youth was turned over to officers for incarceration in the Nevada County jail pending investigation and filing of grand theft and violation of the Dyer Act charges.

Hamilton was trapped by Herbert Bartman, registration assistant, when Bartman, suspicious of the driver and his two poorly-dressed companions demanded registration papers and identification as the owner.

The youth stoutly maintained that he was Arnold, but following an hour's grilling by Chief Clerk Carl E. Smith and Clerk Sarge Clark, made a statement to Clark admitting theft of the machine from Arnold's garage after he had "spotted" the Arnold garage layout through the house maid, whom he had met at a Lusk dance.

Asked to account for a five-gallon can and a section of rubber hose found in the car, young Hamilton said he cut the hose from a coil in the Arnold garage just before he backed the car into the street and got the can from a cafe. He refused, however, to admit that he had used them to siphon gasoline from other cars en route here.

In his statement, he also admitted a previous "rap" asserting that at the age of 13, he entered a pool hall in a Denver, Colorado, suburb and stole $20. He said he received five years probation.

It is held likely that the youth will be returned to Wyoming for trial.

TAHOE S. P. DEPOT WILL OPEN SOON; TRACKS ARE CLEAR

The Southern Pacific Company will open its line between Truckee and Tahoe City today, according to an announcement made by officials of the company. A rotary plow will be put into action to clear the way.

The agency will be opened at Tahoe City on April 20, the announcement said, with Joseph Bick, who has been spending the winter at Folsom, in charge.

LIONS TO HOLD MEET ON WEDNESDAY AS VOTE IS TAKEN

Reversing the action of the directors, the membership of the Truckee Lions Club Tuesday night, voted to continue holding the regular weekly meetings on Wednesday instead of changing to Tuesday as proposed by the directors. It was pointed out that counter attractions on Tuesday interfere with the attendance of many of the Lions.

It was also voted to adjourn the meetings at 8:50 p. m. sharp. The meeting was presided over by R. C. Gregory, president.

DEPARTMENT CALLED

A chimney fire at the William Englehart home on Church street last week resulted in the fire department being summoned. Sparks from the chimney caused a small blaze on the roof of the Native Sons building, but no damage was reported. The old fire truck went to the scene under its own power.

New Fire Station To Be Erected To House Equipment

Work Will Start Soon On Commercial Row Structure

Construction of the new building to house Truckee's new fire truck and apparatus, expected to arrive here early in June will start within the next two weeks.

This was announced at the meeting of the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department at the St. Louis cafe on Monday night. The structure is to be located between the Southern Pacific hotel and the Union Service Station on the south side of Commercial row. It will be sufficiently large to house the truck and other apparatus, according to Chief Dolley who presided at the meeting.

Elmo Granata was voted into the department as a new member.

Campbells Take Over Texaco Oil Station Business

Station on West Main Will Be Operated By Brothers

Announcement that they have taken over the Texaco Service Station on West Main street and have already opened the popular place for business, was made today by Colin and Boyd Campbell, well known Truckee brothers.

They also announced that they would retain the agency for the Buick cars and G. M. C. trucks.

Campbell Brothers only recently relinquished the Associated Oil Company station here after being in the service station business for nearly four years.

TAHOE SKIERS WIN AGAIN IN MEET AT PLACERVILLE SUN.

TAHOE CITY, April 15.—Lake Tahoe Ski club members again brought home the lion's share of prizes from the Placerville ski meet held last Sunday. No jumps were held as the hill had not been prepared.

Combined events went to Roy Mikkelsen of Auburn with James Worden of Tahoe causing a mild sensation by placing second. Carl Bechdoit, Jr., and Albert Henry tied for third place.

Competing with the veteran Mikkelsen, Carl Bechdoit took first in the down hill. Henry was third, and Worden fourth.

In the slalom, Mikkelsen was first, Worden second, Henry third and Bechdoit fourth, the top places in the entire meet being juggled about by these fast ski riders.

Joe Pomin, class C contender, entered his first competition at the meet and made an excellent showing, despite an attack of nerves.

Judge Tuttle Will Return From Presiding in Los Angeles Court Friday

Judge Raglan Tuttle is scheduled to return to Nevada City to preside in the superior court on Friday during the regular law and motion calendar hearing, according to word received by Clerk R. N. McCormack.

The local jurist has been presiding in the Los Angeles court.

DIRECTORS NAMED FOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN MEET

The board of directors of the local chamber of commerce met Wednesday evening to study the proposed changes in the new by-laws of the organization.

All former directors of the civic body were reappointed for the coming year by President Charles B. White.

BOCA CAR CRASH SENDS THREE TO HOBART HOSPITAL

Ben Clark Has Broken Back As Daughter, Friend, Also Injured

CAR LEAVES HIGHWAY

Driver Falls Asleep as Car Plunges Into Rocks On Curve

Three well known Hobart Mills residents were seriously hurt early Monday morning when a car driven by Mrs. Karl Weeks, 30, left the highway on a curve near Boca and plunged into the rocks.

The most seriously injured is J. B. Clark, father of Mrs. Weeks and head mechanic for the Hobart Mills Company, who suffered three broken vertebrae in his spine. He will be in a cast for some time. Mrs. Weeks has a fractured skull and other lesser injuries, but her condition is reported much improved.

E. C. Clarkson, the third member of the party, escaped with a broken right leg. All three are in the Hobart hospital. Dr. J. H. Bernard was called to treat them after they had been rushed to the hospital in the Laity ambulance.

The accident occurred, according to reports, when Mrs. Weeks dozed at the wheel of the car. Mrs. Weeks and Clarkson were thrown clear as the machine careened down the bank, but Clark was pinned under the wreckage.

LODGE WILL FETE DEPARTING HOBERT MEMBERS AT MEET

A sad note will be injected into the festivities incident to the meeting of Summit Lodge No. 54, Knight of Pythias, Friday night, when a farewell reception will be tendered Hobart Mills members, soon to depart for new locations.

A musical program and feed will follow the brief business session. William Bottcher is chairman in charge of the program.

JUDGE LOSES FINE FOR TRUSTING BOY IN LOCAL COURT

It doesn't pay to trust a traffic violator, in the opinion of Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith, who last month gave an 18-year old Reno driver "a break" and as a result still has a $10 fine coming.

The boy, Charles Span, was tagged for speeding, Judge Smith said, and appeared in his court where he was fined $10 or ordered to jail for five days. The youth put up a story that appealed to the judge's sense of sympathy and when the boy promised faithfully that if he were permitted to go home, the fine money would be returned immediately, the court granted the request.

The promise was made March 14. The money has not arrived.

APPEAL MADE TO DRIVERS WHO PASS ON WRONG SIDE

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—An urgent appeal was made to motorists this week by Chief E. Raymond Cato of the California highway patrol, to avoid passing other vehicles to the right on open highways. This practice resorted to in an attempt to gain a few seconds time, is condemned by the state traffic head, because of deaths and accidents caused by such illegal passing.

Liquor Tax High In State, Says Report

The rest rooms are being enlarged, new and most modern gasoline pumps installed and the entire station redecorated in preparation for the summer travel trade.

Eleven Speeders Nabbed In Truckee Area Are Given Arrest Tickets

They are E. M. Starr, Reno; Bertha Smith, Iowa; Norman Mink, Elko; P. M. Browne, San Francisco; Mary Guwitz, San Francisco; Warren Williams, Chillico; Al Scharton, Oakland; Robert Swanson, Jr., North Sacramento; C. B. Mace, Davis; George Barth, Reno and E. W. Cheney, Reno.

O'HANRAHAN UNDER KNIFE IN HOSPITAL; CONDITION SERIOUS

The condition of Tim O'Hanrahan, prominent Truckee resident and active figure in Nevada County political circles, who underwent an operation in a Reno hospital last week, was pronounced as serious.

O'Hanrahan, who has been in ill health for several months, went to the hospital last week where an operation was immediately performed.

During his illness, O'Hanrahan's brother, William O'Hanrahan from Seattle is managing the Sierra Tavern and other local property.

NEW RECORD SET BY LEGISLATURE IN VOTE ON BILL

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—(UP)—The senate hung up some kind of a record when it voted 38 to 0 against a bill by Senator Ed Fletcher.

Fletcher's proposal would have changed the number of votes necessary to reapportion supervisorial districts from four supervisors to three.

When the count appeared at 37 to one against the lanky San Diego solon, he threw up his hands and made it unanimous.

Old timers in the upper house said they could not recall a similar occasion.

TRUCKEE AVIATOR IN FIRST FORCED LANDING ESCAPES

Eugene Barton Lands Safely When Plane Motor Is Stalled

WATER IN GASOLINE

Youth Tells of Incident In Letter To Local Relatives

Although still a student pilot, Eugene Barton, Truckee youth, now studying aviation at the Boeing air field at Alameda, has experienced a thrill which many veteran pilots have yet to encounter—having his motor stall while cruising over a rugged countryside.

By using good judgment, the boy made a forced landing in a field and escaped without injury to himself or the plane.

In telling of the "little incident", Barton wrote:

I was cruising along about 1500 feet in the air by myself, just flying around enjoying the absolute freedom and solitude and cleanliness of the skies and practicing maneuvers, when all of a sudden my engine missed, caught again and then quit completely and there I was with my heart in my throat and miles from the airport.

Lots of things went through my mind in the few seconds after the motor quit till I finally made up my mind what to do.

After I made up my mind, I became as cool as you please and every thing seemed unusually clear, my thinking apparatus became clear and I immediately knew just what to do. We had been told what to do in such emergencies, and those things came to me. It seemed almost as if my instructor was right at my ear saying, "the most important thing to do is not to get excited." Well, I looked around and found a field behind me which some farmer had recently harrowed. I had plenty of altitude so I circled the field and came down in the wind over a fence and made as pretty a landing as could be hoped for under any condition.

Not a single part of the plane was injured nor was any of the farmer's property.

The letter explained that water had gotten into the gasoline and caused the failure. In concluding the letter, the student pilot said:

A whole mob of farmers and kids flocked around the plane and I felt pretty embarrassed but happy to know I had come through the emergency in tip-top shape.

DONIHUE PRAISES WORK OF TRUCKEE CHECKING CREW

Assemblyman Leon Donihue, who achieved much state-wide fame as chairman of the interim committee which investigated California horse racing and liquor enforcement, visited the Truckee checking station on Sunday afternoon.

After noting the work of the men, he stated that he was "sold" on the checking station idea, declaring that outside of apprehending stolen cars, securing much revenue for the state in car and truck registrations and handling their numerous other duties, Senior Clerk Carl E. Smith and his men were doing a great work for the state as "ambassadors of good will."

Mileage is Proposed For County Supervisors In Seawell's Measure

Mileage to the amount of six Nevada, Sierra and Placer county supervisors if the bill presented by cents a mile will be allowed to the Senator Jerrold Seawell and passed in the upper house meets with approval throughout its course.

A maximum amount for mileage that the supervisors may receive has been set at $40 in Nevada County, $30 in Sierra and $50 in Placer.

JUST TWO MORE WEEKS

In just a day or two more than two weeks, fishing will be legalized on the Truckee river. For six months hundreds of fishermen, who know the Truckee to be one of the best streams in the west, have been anxiously awaiting for May 1. They will beat paths down both sides of the stream for miles as thousands of trout succumb to the lure.

We welcome the fishermen as much as they welcome the opening of the season. Many of them will again make this their headquarters for short and long vacations, returning as often as possible during the period the sport is permitted.

They come here not only because the fishing is so good, but because they know that Truckee is ready and prepared to take care of their needs and requirements and that local businessmen will do all possible to make their stay here one of enjoyment.

OUR ANNUAL EPIDEMIC

Among the other discomforts of spring, like chickenpox, mumps and measles, we are beginning to suffer from our annual epidemic of transient peddlers. The roads are again open and the free-lancer no longer fears that he will be snowbound for a few hours in our community and thereby be forced to spend a few of the dollars which he takes from us. He can make his invasion cheerfully.

He never stops long. Truckee can be "worked" in a relatively short time and usually a couple of hours, between meals, suffices. The glib salesman never wastes his time on a "cold" prospect, there are too many who are willing to listen to his story and buy his goods to do that.

Working on a commission basis, without overhead or other expense, except that of the usual wage earner, a transient peddler contributes little or nothing to the welfare of our community. He feels, and quite rightly so perhaps, that he is under no obligation to patronize or support Truckee stores. He takes what he can get and gets out. Too often he gets considerably more out of the transaction than his customer.

For an example, our old friend, the itinerant printing salesman passed down Commercial row last week, taking orders for letterheads, envelopes, statements, cards, menus and other printed forms. He was given a few orders. He convinced some of the more gullible that he was offering them "bargains."

Maybe in some instances, the merchant did save a few cents, although we doubt this very much, over what the job would have cost right here in Truckee. If the theory of trading at home is good, and experience has certainly proven it so, then the merchants themselves should be the first to recognize the fact and above all others take a lead in the practice. It really pays big dividends to trade at home.

MORALLY WRONG

One of the main arguments used in defense of the plan to "pack" the Supreme Court is that the tribunal of nine men is incapable of handling the large number of cases appealed to it. The intimation is that the Court is far behind in its work and needs new hands and minds to help it catch up.

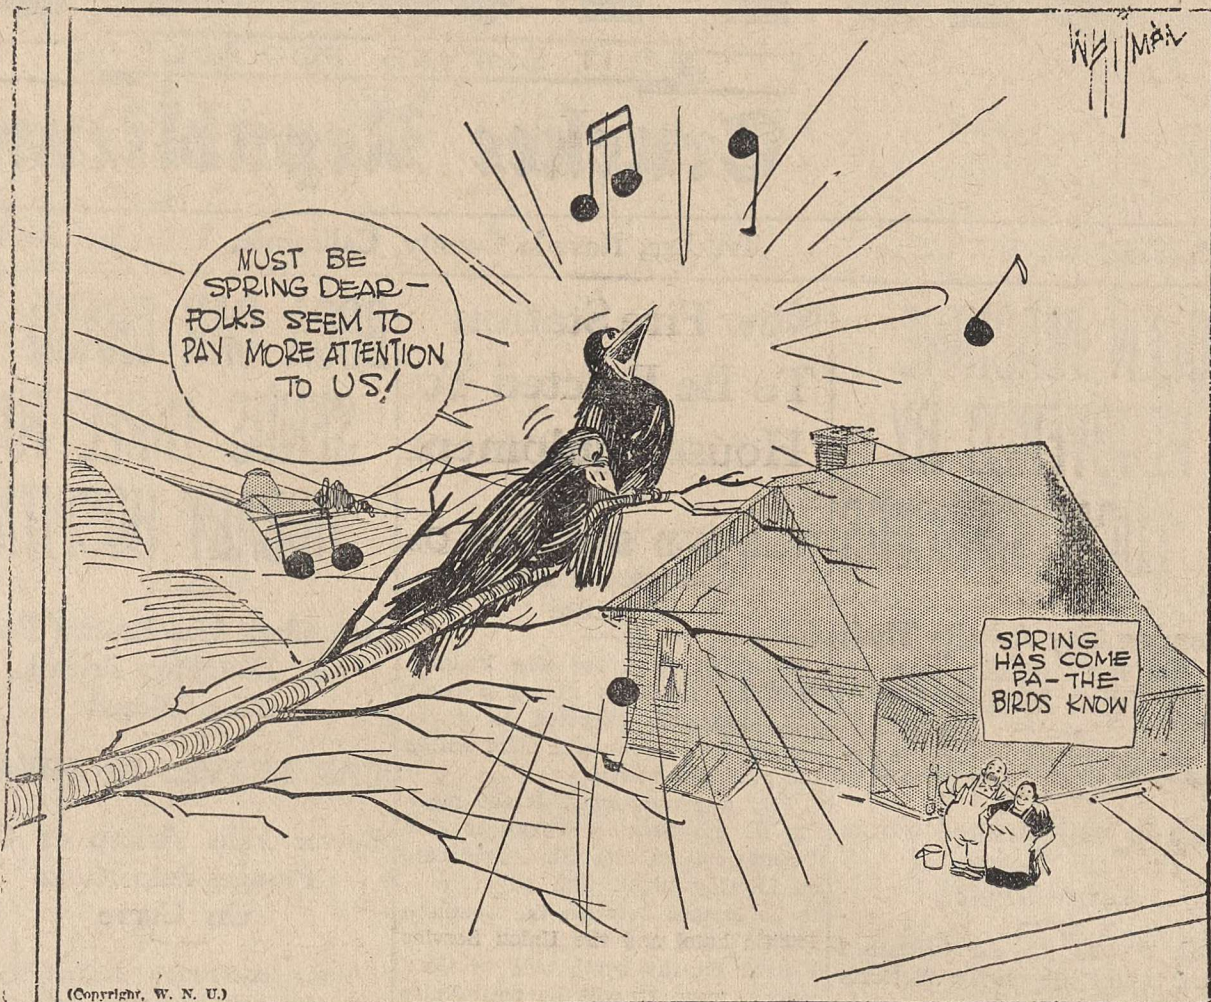

This would be an excellent argument if true. But not long ago, Attorney General Cummings, in his annual report, gave the Court high praise for the manner in which it handled cases and kept its docket relatively small. And now new evidence to this comes from the highest authority on Court procedure—Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes.

In a letter to Senator Wheeler, introduced as testimony in the senate hearings on the Court plan, the chief justice shows statistically that the Court is fully abreast of its work. At its last session, it actually heard cases in which writs of certiorari had been granted less than a month before. When the Court rose on March 15 for recess, only a handful of cases remained for disposition.

Then the chief justice said definitely that an increase in membership of the Court would not, in his opinion, be in the interest of efficiency and speedy disposition of cases. To the contrary, "There would be more judges to hear, more judges to confer, more judges to discuss, more judges to be convinced and to decide."

The truth of the matter is that advocates of the Court

Which Is Which

Politically Speaking

By GEORGE E. HELMER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—(UP)—The first serious trouble to develop among state relief administration employees since Harold E. Pomeroy became administrator had that young executive worried.

It all started when an SRA employee organized a group of colleagues to lobby for or against certain bills pending before the legislature. Pomeroy asked them to cease the lobbying activity, particularly on state time, because they might give the wrong impression and cause misunderstandings since their views did not in all cases coincide with his and he was the person to whom legislators looked for information concerning measures effecting the SRA.

The instigator of the lobbying plan took offense and made a statewide issue of the matter, demanding to know who Pomeroy thought he was, trying to tell his subordinates what they could or could not do in support of their personal beliefs.

Pomeroy's explanation of his attitude failed to convince the SRA employees that they occupied the same position relatively, as employees of other state departments and should expect to follow instructions plan use such empty arguments as camouflage and window dressing. Honest witnesses in defense of the plan, frankly admit they want a Court with a different economical and social viewpoint—in other words, a court which will "write" law rather than interpret it. In this connection, the American people would do well to ponder the words of Senator Burton Wheeler, an old-time liberal: "If it is morally wrong for a private litigant to pack a jury, if it is morally wrong for a private litigant to pack a court, it's just as wrong for the government as a litigant to pack the Court."

In that, he was supported by a majority of state officials and many legislators who pointed out that if all state employees lobbied to put over their personal ideas the legislative halls and committee room would not be large enough to hold them and committee meetings would have to be held in a football stadium to accommodate the crowds.

Many legislators believed the "youth movement", backing a bill to appropriate $20,000,000 to aid needy young people who desired to continue their high school and college education, was injured seriously by the injection of a communist angle when scores of youths from all parts of the state appeared before the assembly social service and welfare committee.

Sixteen youthful speakers representing various organizations addressed the committee. The last to argue in favor of the bill was Frank Carlson, San Francisco, representative of the Young Communists League. He said $20,000,000 was not enough. The committee voted 4 to 3 against sending the bill out with a "do pass" recommendation.

"Appearance of that young communist gave the opponents something on which to hang their hats," one observer said.

Assemblyman Elmer Lore, author of the measure, described the incident as "one of the poorest pieces of strategy" he had seen, and believed it was responsible for the committee rejecting the measure.

Even if he could muster enough votes on the committee to send the bill out later, he doubted whether it would pass because of the "communist" label it acquired, coupled with the heavy appropriation sought. Unprejudiced members admitted that the communist angle merely was incidental but figured it was sufficient to help kill a movement
